THE HEALING FOUNDATION VISION

The Healing Foundation (THF) is a national Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander organisation that partners with communities to address the ongoing trauma caused by actions like the forced removal of children from their families.

We focus on building culturally strong, community led healing solutions, through working closely with communities around the country.

THE ROLE AND THE TEAM

The role: Delivery Team Leader – Engagement and Delivery

Our Engagement and Delivery team leads the planning, development and implementation of The Healing Foundation's programs, projects and partnerships. The team is responsible for the delivery and overall success of individual pieces of work, that help The Healing Foundation deliver on our strategic priorities.

Trauma-aware, Healing Informed Practice

The Healing Foundation are leading the national conversation on Intergenerational Healing for First Nations People. If systems, sectors and workforces understand and commit to their role in Intergenerational Healing, both the experience and outcomes for First Nations People will improve. Trauma aware-healing informed practice requires organisations to understand the manifestation of past and current trauma, and then make changes (some very simple) to take a role in healing, wellbeing and subsequently closing the gap.

The Healing Foundation Competency Framework is designed to provide a roadmap for leaders and teams to have more specific discussions on ‘how to be successful’ at The Healing Foundation by articulating our expectations of ourselves and others. It is designed to support the achievement of our strategic plan.

Reporting to the Deputy Director, Delivery, your role must demonstrate the following Core competencies and Job specific competencies:
